TAKEN UP WRIT PETITION NO.10024 OF 2006

Oral Order: (per Sri LNR.J)

The petitioner issued a fax message to this Court alleging that her son by name Shaik Osman was illegally detained at the I Town Police Station of Vijayawada. The fax message was treated as a writ of Habeas Corpus and the respondents were directed to file counter affidavit and place the necessary information before this Court.

Today, the learned Advocate General filed a counter affidavit as well as the supporting material.

From a perusal of the counter affidavit, it is evident that a complaint was lodged before the I town police station by one Shaik Bashuda @ Basha, working as watchman of the slaughter house at Vijayawada and on the basis of the same F.I.R No.207 of 2006 was registered on 24.4.2006. It is alleged that even while the search for nabbing the accused was in progress, he filed Criminal M.P.No.487 of 2006 in the Court of Metropolitan Sessions Judge, Vijayawada on 2.5.2006 for anticipatory bail and in fact an order was passed on 19.5.2006 granting anticipatory bail imposing conditions. It is stated that the alleged detenu did not comply with the conditions imposed by the trial Court.

In view of the above facts, we find that the fax message issued by the petitioner is without any basis and we accordingly dismiss the writ petition.
